New Confirmations—Wise and Stanley.
Correspondence of The Tribune.
WASHINGTON, May 9, 1842.

The Mr. BUCHANAN concluded his remarks upon the Debate on Corpus Christi, the Senate closed their sittings and confirmed the following appointments:

GEO. W. LIV. Charge to Stockholm.
CONGRESSOR HENRY Charge to Netherlands.

HENRY W. HOBART, Charge to Belgium.

J. A. SCHAFFER, Charge to U. S. for Norway.

Treasor D'Orsay of Mt. Cavalry at Nassau, N. P.

CASSY WHITEL, Collector of the Port of Norfolk, Va.

SILVER H. TAYLOR, Postmaster at Lynchburg, Va.

There is much speculation as to the result of the personal encounter between Mr. STANLEY and Mr. WISE which occurred at the Race Course, on Saturday last. As you will see various versions of this affair, it is well to advise you of the particulars. On leaving the ground, the gentlemen being on horseback, Mr. STANLEY's horse crowded or jostled Mr. WISE's, and partly disturbed the men of the Virginia. Mr. W. deeming the act an intentional offence, (which by the way was an error) he gave spur to his mogg, overtook and struck Mr. S. a blow on the head with a cane.

Both gentlemen were very quiet in their chairs until, and the matter rests for the present.

Yours, &c.,
CURTIS.

The Tremont Insurance Company of Boston has declared a most noble dividend of twenty-five per cent for the last six months.

At a meeting of the Stockholders of the Exchange Bank of Virginia, the President spoke of the situation of the Bank.

As to the amount of our discounts, you will find in the general statement that they do not exceed 50 per cent on our capital—an amount which will, I think, not ought to be offered to us. Our circulation is in the proportion of 2 to 1, or nearly so, and cannot therefore be considered as a capital sum. Also, the information which comes to hand does not last up to the 26th of the last month, say 2 months, & would enable us now to declare a dividend of more than 24 per cent.

It may be proper to inform you that there is a good prospect of early resumption of specie payments by us.

The Stockholders of the Bank of Kentucky have had a meeting and resolved, among other things, to present the claimants the Seminary Bank, to introduce greater economy into the Bank, diffuse its benefits among as great a number of persons as possible, and after the resumption of specie payments to disband as liberally as the safety of the institution will allow.

And the Senate went into Executive session.
